

BREAKFAST

At the Inn on Mill Creek, we feature a hearty, full breakfast each morning and can individually tailor our dishes for specific diets. In cool months, we serve breakfast indoors in the Main House dining area. In warm months, enjoy breakfast in the solarium overlooking Pisgah National Forest.

SPACE TO RELAX

The Inn has a large two-story Great Room with couches perfect for stretching out. You can also find plenty of seating outdoors on our seven acres, with decks overlooking the pond, chairs and benches around the gardens, and a stone fire pit.

FIND PEACE IN THE BEAUTY OF NATURE

Looking for an escape from your busy world? Consider a stay at the Inn on Mill Creek Bed & Breakfast, where a day in our neck of the woods might include searching for birds and native wildflowers, strolling our walking labyrinth, taking a scenic drive on the Blue Ridge Parkway, hiking a nature trail to a peaceful spot in the woods, or to a mountain vista or a waterfall, sightseeing in a fantastic small town, or just putting up your feet and relaxing.

Located in the mountains of Western North Carolina, known for its rich history, art and culture, the Inn on Mill Creek is the perfect jumping-off point for exploring the area. Or if you just want to do a lot of nothing, we can help with that, too.

GUEST ROOM FEATURES

All six of our comfortable guest rooms have their own private bath, free wi-fi, and king or queen bed. In addition, many rooms have flat-screen TVs, jetted tubs and gas fireplaces. Visit www.innonmillcreek.com to see details and rates for all of our rooms.

ABOUT THE INN ON MILL CREEK BED & BREAKFAST

Located two miles inside Pisgah National Forest, between the charming small towns of Black Mountain and Old Fort, North Carolina, the Inn on Mill Creek Bed & Breakfast provides a peaceful respite from the hustle and bustle of life. The Inn offers six contemporary guest rooms in two buildings, as well as outdoor garden spaces, set on more than seven private wooded acres. The Inn's orchard provides fresh seasonal fruit, while a pond formerly known as Lake Allison and adjacent to the Inn's Deck House is the historic water source for the Andrews Geyser, a manmade fountain two miles away that was built in the 1880s by the Southern Railway Company.

The Inn on Mill Creek B&B is a National Wildlife Federation and North Carolina Certified Wildlife Habitat and one of a handful of private properties listed on the North Carolina Birding Trail, Mountains Region. Some birds you may see at the Inn, depending on season, include Swainson's Warblers, Red-eyed Vireos, Indigo Buntings, Black-throated Blue Warblers, Whip-Poor-Wills, Ruby-throated Hummingbirds, American Goldfinches, Tufted Titmice, Eastern Phoebe, Pileated Woodpeckers...just to name a few. Other wildlife can be observed in western North Carolina, such as deer, fox, and black bears.

The Inn on Mill Creek B&B is secluded, but not isolated. Free wi-fi is available and most of our guest rooms have satellite high-definition TV. Additionally, a scenic 10-minute drive through the woods put you in the town of Black Mountain or on your way to vibrant and artsy Asheville. The historic town of Old Fort is also nearby.

ABOUT THE AREA

The Blue Ridge Parkway, Biltmore Estate, Grandfather Mountain and Chimney Rock State Park provide many opportunities for sightseeing. Additionally, the area has several hiking, mountain biking and waterfall trails of varying degrees of difficulty and spectacular views. The Black Mountains along the Blue Ridge Parkway contain six of the ten highest peaks in the eastern United States, including the highest, Mt. Mitchell, part of a state park north of the Inn on Mill Creek B&B.

The town of Black Mountain has many great local shops, art galleries and restaurants, while Old Fort maintains its rich railroad, pioneer and arts and crafts heritage, with museums, the McDowell Quilt Trail, and festivals throughout the year.
